

MINISTER LUCILLE C. SEARCY

Minister Lucille Calligan Searcy is a native of Lake Charles, Louisiana, and has lived in Georgia for over thirty-five years. She is married to Deacon Edward Searcy and has a blended family of two sons, one daughter, and five grandchildren. She attended schools in Louisiana, Georgia, and Tennessee; she completed a Bachelor's Degree in English Education, a Master's Degree in Educational Administration, and a Specialist Degree in Curriculum and Instruction. She is a retired educator and administrator, but she continues to teach in various settings.

Minister Searcy received salvation at the age of seven through the Billy Graham television ministry and later rededicated her life to Christ as an older teenager. She has been in the ministry for over thirty years. She was trained and ordained (1997) under the leadership of the late Apostle Randy D. Hall of The Sword of the Lord Churches, International, in Eastpoint, Georgia, where she is a member and Roslyn D. Montgomery is Overseer and Pastor. She is also ordained under Prayer and Action Ministries, International, by Apostle of Prayer Viola S. Walker where she is a prophetic intercessor/teacher and serves on the Board of Directors.

Minister Searcy is the Founder and President of Is It Peace Ministries, Inc., (2002) which has hosted diverse ministry meetings, but presently functions as a host for prayer conference calls and instruction about prayer for specific geographical areas. She is also the founder of Tree of Light Ministry (2012) which is a prophetic outreach teaching, prayer, and radio ministry in the Atlanta area purposed to bring light, revelation, and instruction to the minds of the people, thereby causing breakthroughs and deliverance.

Minister Lucille Calligan Searcy is a published author, a prophetic teacher in the fivefold ministry, and a prayer warrior in the Body of Christ. She ministers at many Youth and Women's Conferences and at various church settings, as the Lord permits. She has strong faith in God, believes that nothing is too hard for God, and desires to see the people of God walking in the fullness of God.
